

Dr Michael Gerard COOPER

MB BS (UNSW) FANZCA FFPMANZCA

February 2016 WFSA Application

Current positions:

Senior Anaesthetist - The Children's Hospital at Westmead and St George Hospital Kogarah, Sydney, Australia

Adjunct Professor of Anaesthesiology, School of Medicine and Health Sciences, University of Papua New Guinea.

Committee Involvements:

Current member of the Paediatric Anaesthesia Committee, WFSA

Chair, Overseas Aid Committee, Australian & New Zealand College of Anaesthetists

Member, Overseas Development and Education Committee, Australian Society of Anaesthetists

Member, Editorial Board Anaesthesia and Intensive Care

Clinical Interests:

The difficult paediatric airway

Paediatric pain management

Paediatric anaesthesia in the resource poor setting

Effective education in the resource poor setting

History of anaesthesia

Recent publications:

Cooper MG, Wake PB, Morriss WW, Cargill P, McDougall R. Global safe anaesthesia and surgery initiatives: Implications for anaesthesia in the Pacific region. In press Anaesth Intens Care 2106.

Santoro AS, Cooper MG, Cheng A. Failed intubation and failed oxygenation in a child. Anaesth Intens Care 2012; 40: 1056-8

PW Howe, Cooper MG. Blood loss and replacement for paediatric cranioplasty in Australia – a prospective national audit. Anaesth Intens Care 2012; 40: 107-113

Brooker GE, Cooper MG. Airway management for infants with severe micrognathia having mandibular distraction osteogenesis. Anaesth Intens Care 2010; 38: 43-9.